

STANDARDS FOR BUILDING HAPPINESS FAMILY IN HO CHI MINH CITY

1

Family behavior standards

- All family members follow the principles: Respect - Equality - Love - Sharing - Norms.
- The behavioral relationships in the family are guaranteed:

Husband and wife treatment: faithful, filial piety, love, sharing, equality, respect,
Behavior of parents with children, grandparents with grandchildren: Exemplary, love, fair, respect.
Behavior of children with parents, grandchildren with grandparents: Filial, polite, respect, flattery.
Behavior of brothers, sisters: Harmony, sharing, respect, solidarity.

2

Material condition standards

- All family members have a labor obligation to work at the age specified by law and contribute to the economic development of their families based on their abilities;
- All family members have the obligation to establish a material life and meet their basic clothing – food- housing, and material living for themselves and their families;
- There are residences/residences that meet basic needs,

3

Mental conditions Standards

- All family members show respect for each other, ensure freedom of belief and solidarity among members;
- Freedom of belief and religion are respected,
- All family members maintain participation in common, important and special events and activities of the family; Family members show listening, sharing, encouragement, encouraging words of love to each other.
- All family members have conditions to participate in public spaces for entertainment together
- All family members have the freedom to create and establish cultural values that are suitable

4

Educational Conditions Standards

- All family members are facilitated to study, improve professional qualifications, promote creativity;
- All members have the right to receive legal education in order to fulfill their civic obligations in the spirit of respecting the Constitution and laws.

5

Educational Conditions Standards

- All family members participate in health insurance and receive health care;
- Every couple has their own children according to their own wishes/expectations and legal provisions;
- All family members participate in physical exercise and sports;
- All family members receive reproductive health care; Obtaining good respect and care during reproductive activities to ensure gender equality in the family.

